Week 1

“What is Courtesy? Consideration for others.”

Mark Twain

1. If you are in a hurry to go to lunch and a classmate drops their lunchbox and food goes everywhere what would you do?

2. If someone makes a bad grade on a test, what would you say to this person?

3. If someone in your class is very shy and doesn't have many friends, how would you treat this person?

Week 2

“Really big people are, above everything else, courteous, considerate, and generous – not just to some people in some circumstances – but to everyone all the time.”

Thomas J. Watson

4. Your parents have friends that come to your house. You are on the couch watching tv. What should you do?

5. Someone calls on the telephone for your parents and you answer, what should you say?

6. When you are at a restaurant with your family and someone comes over to speak to you, what would you say? Where would you look when you were speaking to them?

Week 3

“Rudeness is the weak man's imitation of strength.”

Eric Hoffer

7. If someone helps you with something just to be nice, what would you say?

8. If you are asking for something, what do you say?

9. If you accidentally bump into someone what would you say?
